About Our Tournament

This year we are supporting The Oakville Hospital Foundation's Navigator Program and the Rotary Club of Oakville West's Charitable Foundation. More information about the Navigator Program may be found at:

www.oakvillehospitalfoundation.com

Format: Scramble with no tee-off restrictions. All players tee off; the team then selects the best ball location for all four players to use for the subsequent shots.

Clean and place within 10 cm (4 in)

We will golf rain or shine

About Us

The Rotary Club of Oakville West is one of three Rotary Clubs in Oakville. We are dedicated to the ideals of Rotary International, known for good fellowship. Our aim, through efficient fundraising, is to support a balanced variety of deserving community, vocational and international causes.

Rotary is a service association of business and professional leaders united worldwide. We are dedicated to improving our world. We encourage high ethical standards in all vocations and work towards world understanding and peace.

Our club projects have raised over $700,000 for deserving causes. We are

Save the date: May 15, 2014
